

Practice Area: Divorce

Dr. Elisabeth Kuhn Deakin earned a Ph.D. in Psychology at PUCRS in Brazil and is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor (LMHC). Elisabeth is trilingual with fluency in English, Portuguese and Spanish. She has more than 25 years of experience working with children, adolescents, adults, couples and families. Dr. Deakin uses a psychodynamic approach in the treatment of a variety of disorders such as anxiety, depression, adjustment and ADHD.

Marlene Schneider Potter, a Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW), is the Founder and Director of the Coconut Grove Center for Counseling. Ms. Potter holds two masters degrees and an undergraduate degree from the State University of New York at Stony Brook. Marlene is very interested in the research about how the biology of the brain influences people's emotions, behavior and interactions. This interest led her to author a book, Emotional Hijacking, which is available from Amazon.com